MIKE LANGHANS

VOICE TALENT

about me

After my graduation from acting school, I spent a couple of successful years as a theatre actor before I specialized in voice over work in 2011 - recording from my own studio right from the start.

Since more than 10 years I am the voice of brands, institutions, broadcast stations and publishers. National and international. In German and English.

recording in my own studio

My voice over studio is equipped with High-End equipment and suited to deliver prime quality recordings.

Remote Recording is always possible and time-, picture-, or lip-synced voice recordings are no problem at all.

You get your recordings neatly edited, sound optimized and in the file format of your choice.

recording in a studio of your choice

Of course I can come to your studio. Let's talk about it!
